

Financial Policy

In order to minimize administration costs and accounting burdens, all contributions to HIAOM are recognized as unrestricted funds, unless given on a specific family's page through our Funds for Families program. Treating all other contributions as unrestricted allows us to meet the most critical needs and provide the greatest value to the children and families we serve.

Approved March 4, 2017